NOTE: We are not required to submit to earthly authorities when they attempt to rule outside the realm of their authority, or require us to disobey God. Also, taking up your cross and submitting to authority does not mean subjecting yourself or others to abuse.

To use the sheet, write down particular thoughts, words or actions you have used in response to an event or issue. Then, enter the score value that is appropriate for the response in the various columns. Add the total value to see how many opportunities you have given the devil by this response. Try to formulate thoughts, words and actions that do not give any opportunities to the devil, and commit yourself to taking those thoughts captive. Rev 20190129
